

CAMPER COVENANT

Camp Phoenix 2015

At Camp Phoenix, we believe that all people are loved by God and therefore are worthy of respect and kindness. In all things, we seek to work towards peace. To that end, I will endeavor to:

Seek a positive resolution when conflicts arise, by speaking up and letting my counselor know when I have a problem, need, or concern. I will listen to my counselors and the other Camp Phoenix staff and show respect to them during my week at camp.

Respect the rights, property and dignity of others as well as respect others for who they are. I will act in a friendly and respectful manner towards other campers and staff.

Use appropriate language while at camp, and will not use abusive or deliberately hurtful language.

Participate fully in all activities planned for me and my cabin during my week at camp.

Create a safe and positive environment for myself and other campers, by not bringing or using any alcohol, drugs, or other harmful substances while at camp. I understand that violence and illegal activity will not be tolerated during my time at Camp Phoenix, and any violence directed toward myself, any other camper or staff member will not be tolerated.

Do my best to obey the spirit of this covenant and to help others enjoy their week at Camp Phoenix.

I understand that the violation of this covenant may result in disciplinary action or dismissal from Camp Phoenix.
